

SKiM Knowledge Management Symposium

Published on: August 31, 2021, Submitted by Valerio Graziano on: August 31, 2021

The Sudan National Technical Committee agreed on a two-day symposium, revolving around Smart Agriculture, Role of ICT in Agricultural Extension and Advisory Services, Communication and Facilitation Skills, Value Chain, Gender Role and Knowledge Sharing, Pandemic and ICT (risk mitigation measures based on KM best practices).

Photo credit: Sarra Rasheid ./Ahfad University for Women

Knowledge Management Workshop, 20-21 July 2021, Khartoum, Sudan.

building carried out in 2020, which is consolidated by the Sudan National Technical Committee for KM best practice sharing and development.

The Symposium has revolved around Smart Agriculture, Role of ICT in Agricultural Extension and Advisory Services, Communication and Facilitation Skills, Value Chain, Gender Role and Knowledge Sharing, Pandemic and ICT (risk mitigation measures based on KM best practices). More than ten presentations from just as many trainers have been delivered and discussed among the forty-seven participants.

), has been covered by four national television networks and local newspapers.

Acknowledgement

Strengthening Knowledge Management for Greater Development Effectiveness in the Near East, North Africa, Central Asia and Europe (SKiM) is a grant project led by ICARDA and funded by IFAD. The workshop has been structured and delivered with the support of the Agricultural Research Corporation of Sudan (ARC-Sudan).

Projects

- Strengthening Knowledge Management for Greater Development Effectiveness in the Near East, North Africa, Central Asia and Europe

CRPs, & Partners

CRP on Grain Legumes and
Dryland Cereals - GLDC

International Center for Agricultural Research in the Dry Areas - ICARDA

Keywords

- knowledge management
- ict
- smart agriculture

Countries

- Sudan
-

About the author

Valerio Graziano is at International Center for Agricultural Research in the Dry Areas - ICARDA.

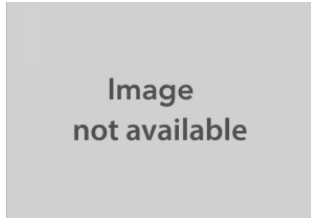

Related Blogs/Outcome Stories

Alternative practices for sustainab...

Chickpea: an alternative crop for r...

SKiM Virtual Learning Route: Sharin...

A Step-wise Approach to Assessing K...

"Towards Sustainable Agriculture ...

What is Knowledge Management?

Opportunities for Crop-Livestock In...

First Step on a Four Years Route to...