

VisualSlideshow.com

Zimbabwe already suffered a severe drought last year which halved the national maize production. 1.5 million Zimbabweans are food insecure according to WFP. Due to El Niño, meteorologists have recently forecasted below normal seasonal rains in the south of the country which will impact food access even further. Photo: Alina Paul-Bosslet, ICRISAT

VisualSlideshow.com

